

Everest Region Heli Tour-3 Hrs

Trip Overview

This is a special tour package for customers who are very mountain lovers but do not prefer to walk and have a lack of time to explore the Nepal Himalayas. This is the fastest way to get to Everest base camp. This heli tour offers a unique opportunity to explore mountains and natural beauties within an hour's flight from Kathmandu with lots of pleasant experiences with closet views of mountains. This is a great way to experience mountains in a short period instead of walking. From Kathmandu, our flight flew towards Lukla. Lukla is the gateway to Mount Everest, all the trekking route to the Everest region starts and end in Lukla. After refueling in Lukla our Flight takes off towards Thame Valley, we will cross over Renjo Pass, enter Gokyo Valley explore beautiful mountains as well as Gokyo Lake and Ngozumba glacier. Then again Crossing Chola Pass to enter Everest Basecamp Valley and land in Kalapathar for 2 minutes for quick photographs. Then again take off towards Chukung Valley then will come back to Hotel Everest view for breakfast. After Breakfast our flight will fly back to Kathmandu. This tour allows getting the best aerial views of Mount Everest and many more.

Cost Includes & Excludes

Includes

- All ground transportation pick up from hotel and drop
- All government taxes and fees
- Heli charter cost
- Breakfast in Everest view hotel

Excludes

- Everything else that is not included in 'Cost included in Everest Heli Tour' Section.